Drexel Park Church Invites You to These Services

11 a. m.—Are You As Good as Other People?

7:45—Christianity and the World of Inventions.

Mr. Oscar St. Jean and Miss Grace Ward stole a march on their friends, last Saturday, by being quietly married at the home of Rev. C. C. Cox, 6306 S. Laflin St. While all had been expecting it some time no one was aware it was so near. Their friends have forgiven them and are extending their best wishes and congratulations.

Mr. Harold Bush and Miss Lillian Chiba were united in marriage at the home of Rev. C. C. Cox, Saturday, Feb. 14th. Their many friends are extending to them wishes for long and prosperous lives. They will reside on the north side.

A very quiet but pretty home wedding was celebrated at 5753 Loomis St., Saturday, Feb. 14th, when Mr. Walter Schmidt and Miss Francis Farrell were united in marriage. They entered the parlor attended by Mr. Oscar Schmidt and Miss Esther Scherfer, to the strains of the wedding march played by the niece of the groom. Rev. C. C. Cox in his own impressive way read the ring service. After the service a wedding supper was served. The best wishes of their many friends go with them.

Mr. Charles H. Vondrak, proprietor of the well known Englewood Shade Factory, 1210 W. 63rd St., has formed the partnership of Mr. James Baba, his brother-in-law in the shade business with him from now on. The business has increased steadily until Mr. Vondrak was compelled to take on more help and enlarge the business. This is no doubt a good move and we wish both of the enterprising gentlemen success in their business.

The convention will be San Francisco's most interesting contribution to history since the earthquake. The degree of difference is not to develop.—Springfield Republican.

Daniel F. McKeown

President McKeown Transportation Co., Inc.

It so happens in life that at times it is necessary for others to discover pursuits in business or professional fields that, should we follow, would place us on the road to success. Then, again, there are those of us who may not have the good fortune to have others suggest what branch of service in life we are best fitted for, while still we may be fortunate in seeking out our own opportunities.

We have good reason to believe that Daniel F. McKeown has realized his own opportunities, in this, that today he holds the position of president of one of the largest motor transportation companies in the states and possibly the world.

Mr. McKeown's rise has been rapid. About ten years ago he entered into business for himself, operating with a single horse and wagon on West 63rd, near Laflin St. Today the faithful horse is but a silent partner. The wagon has been hitched to a star. These succeeded by a fleet of huge motor trucks. McKeown Transportation Co. trucks are in service all over the state and are readily recognized by Dan McKeown's thousands of friends.

Dan is a whole-hearted fellow. His pursestrings have not been closed to any worthy charitable cause. He always thinks of the other fellow. He is a charter member of Father Perez Council, a fourth degree member, and we are proud to hail him as one of the largest business men in West Englewood.

Mr. McKeown, when asked the secret of his success, readily replied: "Hard work, close attention to the details in business, offering prayers daily to Almighty God the first thing in the early morn, and a prayer of thanks for all the good fortune bestowed the last thing at night before a good sound sleep."

The President maintains that he will fight for the League of Nations to the bitter end. At least he realizes that the end is going to be bitter.—Manilla Bulletin.

Minstrel Banquet Held January 24th

Seventy-six members of the Perez Military Minstrel and Cabaret Troupe were guests of honor at a feast, entertainment and dance held in the Saddle and Sirloin Club, Saturday evening, Jan. 24th.

Among the lady guests present were the Misses Norine McKnight, Mary Doyle, Mary Hughes, Emeline Doyle, Bernice Grimely, Loretta Marketok, Marie Burge, Virginia Walsh, Esther Easter, Margaret Lamosney, Loretta Campbell, Loretta Dineen, Theresa Cassidy, Margaret McNally, Florence Lynch, Bessie Stewart, Marie McCann, Florence Carr, Hattie Childers, Margaret McCann Margaret Keegan, Mildred Reedy, Helen Maloney and Gertrude Riordan.

Director George L. Stalzer thanked the members of the cast and committees for their splendid assistance. He also expressed appreciation to the Council, in behalf of the honored guests.

Deputy Grand Knight Frank R. McGarr, Jr., was toastmaster. Past Grand Knight John M. Fox and Officer J. W. L. Carroll were also seated at the speakers' table.

Miss Marie Burge, George L. Stalzer, Jack Everett, Sammy Koolkheck, Larry Everett, Miss Loretta Marketok and Edw. Bouchard entertained.

George La Beau briefly responded when called upon.

Miss Norine McKright came from Milwaukee, Wis., to attend. After the banquet she stated that the distance is not too great to travel to attend a Perez affair.

St. Rita Holy Name Society

62nd St. and Washtenaw Ave. Entertainment and Smoker Thursday Evening.

The next regular meeting of our Parish Holy Name Society will be called to order promptly at 8:30 p. m. Thursday, Feb. 19th, 1920, in St. Rita's Auditorium, 62nd St. and Washtenaw Ave.

Officers will be elected for the ensuing year.

Immediately after the meeting an excellent entertainment and smoker, which has been arranged by Hugh C. Duffy and his committee, will be enjoyed.

Several officers and prominent members from other branches of the Holy Name Society will favor with their presence.

The Golden Rule Boys

Bailey Koerner, known in theatrical circles as Billy Bailey, will be associated with Harry Crawford and the Golden Rule Drug Store No. 1.

Mr. Koerner was born in Evansville, Ind., and has successfully followed the theatrical profession for a number of years. Mr. Koerner has been making Sioux City, Ia., his home the last few years but West Englewood will be his future home. While playing the Orpheum Circuit Mr. Koerner used the Golden Rule name in his acts. In order make his act a success it was necessary to have a satisfied audience and a satisfied audience meant a large number of friends. His motto as well as Harry Crawford's will be a satisfied customer always.

His pleasing personality will no doubt draw a large number of new friends to his new Drug Store which will open in a few days in the Aaron Building at n. e. corner 63rd St. and Ashland Ave.

Mr. Harry Crawford, his partner, needs no further introduction, as "Harry," as he is most familiarly called, counts his friends by the score around 63rd St. and Ashland Ave. Harry has been a business man in other lines around here for the last two years and was shrewd enough to take the "Golden Opportunity" (The Golden Rule Drug Store) on one of our best and livest corners on the South Side. He immediately bought out Mr. P. J. Murphy—lease, fixtures and all and today prizes his new venture at many times the price he paid for it and you can just watch these two "live ones" go along and be one of the brightest spots around our corners.

David I. Swanson

Candidate for Alderman of the 31st Ward

Mr. Swanson was born in the ward 35 years ago, was educated in our grammar and high schools, read law and was admitted to the bar in 1913. His offices are at 10 S. LaSalle St., Englewood office 5926 S. Halsted St., and his residence is at 542 W. 57th Place.

He is associated with Joel C. Swanson, formerly assistant state's attorney. He is an active member of the Englewood Business Men's Association and several fraternal organizations, and is always in the front ranks of those working for the betterment of conditions of our community. Mr. Swanson is a man of proven integrity and character, a "live wire" in all affairs pertaining to the ward and would make a most excellent alderman, and is worthy of the support of the voters irrespective of political affiliations. Men and women of all parties may vote for him at the election to be held Tuesday, Feb. 24th, and it is hoped that he will receive such a majority that it will be unnecessary to hold a supplemental election in this ward.

"THE CABARET GIRLS"

Ability to present exactly what the theatrical clientele of the country at large demands has served to elevate Messrs. Herk, Kelly and Damsel to an exalted position in the world of theatrical producers and the 1919-1920 edition of the "Cabaret Girls" company, which opens a week's engagement at the Englewood Theater on Sunday, February 22nd, is said to present everything that is novel and attractive in theatricals

"Let's Go," a two-act comedy in which the old style of entertaining has been supplanted by the modern and in which a galaxy of prominent principals are to be seen to advantage, is the vehicle in which the "Cabaret Girls" ride this season and the book is from the pen of Ben Holmes who also is producer and "Straight Man" in the company.

Mediocrity in production, so prevalent in attractions of recent years, has given way to excellence in every detail in the Herk, Kelly and Damsel company and such prominent principals as Dot Barnette, Leona Fox Bertha Startzman, Manny King Fred Hackett and Earl Sheahan, to say nothing of the producer, Mr Holmes, combine their talent and endeavors to make the comedy one of surprising merit.

Realtor Service

On and after April 1, 1920, we will occupy our new offices now under construction at 2419 W. 63rd St.

NORTHWEST ENGLEWOOD NEWS

The commissioner of gas and electricity, in a recent newspaper item announced that the city proposed to place on the small ballot in the spring a proposal for a bond issue of $15,000,000 to extend and improve the lighting system of Chicago. We are for this bond issue, if the commissioner will guarantee that if the issue is passed West Englewood will get its share of the lights. In 1914 or 1915 we voted on an issue that was to give us lights as far west as Robey St. but Ashland Ave. is as far west as they ever got, and it does not seem just right that we should be asked to vote the department some more money for the same purpose, unless some assurance is given us that we are going to get what we pay for. We shall be glad to hear from our aldermen on this question.

Walter Brooker, our w. k. co-op. and his family went out for the evening recently and while they were gone burglars got into his home and carried away several hundred dollars' worth in cash and clothes. They got all the clothes the family owned except what they were wearing that evening and we sincerely hope that Walt had on his best suit.

Gentlemen, please step aside, here comes our new Judge of Election, the Honorable Mrs. R. H. Brown.

We are pleased to report that Mrs. Kimble, mother of Tom Kimble, is improving steadily from a recent attack of bronchitis. We are sure that she owes her life to the efficient and tender care of her niece, Miss Edith McManus, a trained nurse, of Moline, Ill. We hope that her complete recovery may have Godspeed.

Issie Morris has recently had some very encouraging news in respect to our park at 59th and Robey St. Leave it to Issie to ferret out anything of benefit to our village.

BAZOOK BOOSTER WEEKLY PRAYER

O Lord—Each of us is trying to be worthy of the great privilege of earthly existence. Help us to strive to perfect ourselves at all times. Help us to love others and overlook their faults.

William Brotzke has purchased the one story brick at 2417 W. 63rd St. next to Jordan & Co.'s new block.

E. L. Carlton has purchased a home in West Englewood.

The men are excavating next door west of Hans Wienhold's fish store for Hans' goldfish pond, which when completed Hans says will be filled with thousands of goldfish. He says the old blacksmith shop will be filled with small stalls and the first will be driven in separate stalls each night, and let loose only in the day time, when they look the prettiest, with the sun shining on them.

Bowling

By HENRY J. MEYERS,
Secretary West Bowling League

Wicker's Smiles went into the lead on Jan. 27th when they copped three games from the former leaders, "Walter's Turks." The rooters who turned out to watch the important matches exercised their lungs while the athletes paved the way to greater health.

McGarr's Signal Corps won two from Dearham Benedicts, winning the first game by six pins. Baxter's Red Dogs won three from Hoff's Birds, winning the first game by nine pins. Foxs Herrings won three from Ellwood Athletics.

[illegible] Hart, captain of McGarr's Signal Corps, certainly has a wonderful eye. All of the good bowlers were making use of it.

Fred Hoff, captain of Hoff's Birds, had a wonderful night last Tuesday, knocking 'em dead.

Val Euler, one of Baxter's Red Dogs, was high man for the evening, scattering 594 pins.

Chas. Baxter, H. J. Meyer, J. Melsheimer, J. Lopetzky, A. Ryan, Ed Hanlon, Ed Barry, Ed. Wachdorf, Chas Ruzick, G. McGowan, Bill Sheehan and Bob Glass were the 500 bowlers Tuesday evening.

Wicker's Smiles now lead the league by two games.

The various captains having postponed games with John Dearham's team should get in touch with Jack and arrange to bowl off the postponed games so they can be witnessed by the opposing captains.
